

Sales Dashboard Insights Summary

1. Sales Over State (Geographic Performance)

- Top States: California, New York, Texas
- Low-Performing States: Wyoming, North Dakota, Vermont
- Insight: Sales distribution is uneven. High-performing states can serve as models for strategies in underperforming areas.

2. Sales Over Months (Trend Analysis)

- Trend: Sales show a consistent upward trend from 2015 to 2019.
- Seasonality: Noticeable spikes during year-end months (likely holiday season).
- Actionable Insight: Align marketing and inventory strategies with seasonal peaks.

3. Sales by Category (Pie Chart)

- Technology: 36.7% (highest)
- Furniture: 32.1%
- Office Supplies: 31.2%
- Insight: Technology leads slightly; all categories are significant contributors.
- Actionable Insight: Focused promotions on tech can yield returns, but keep others in the loop.

4. Top 10 Customers by Sales

- Top Customer: Sean Miller (25,043 in sales)
- Trend: Drop-off in sales after the top few customers.
- Actionable Insight: Retain top customers; develop loyalty strategies. Explore upsell options for mid-tier customers.

5. Sales by Sub-Category and Segment

- High Performers: Phones, Chairs, Copiers, Binders
- Dominant Segment: Consumer segment across most sub-categories
- Actionable Insight: Double down on popular sub-categories. Tailor offerings for each segment type (Consumer, Corporate, Home Office).

6. Sales by Region

- Top Region: West (710,220)
- Lowest Region: South (389,151)
- Insight: Sales are highest in the West, lowest in the South.
- Actionable Insight: Investigate potential market expansion strategies in the South region.

Overall Suggestions:

- Leverage high-performing categories and regions.
- Focus on customer retention and segmentation-based marketing.
